Notice of ending on-site disclosure service and change in disclosure fees

CIC has been providing our consumer disclosure service by online service, postal mail and at on-site disclosure offices, where consumers may check their credit information registered at CIC. As announced previously, our on-site disclosure office will be closed permanently effective February 28, 2023. Together, we hereby announce the change in disclosure fees.

While lowering the fee of online disclosure, we will additionally support payment via mobile carriers (mobile payment) to improve consumer convenience.

In order to fulfill our responsibilities as a credit bureau, we will continue our work on protecting and maintaining credit information and to further improve consumer convenience. We kindly ask for your support and understanding.
